

CMI offers several affordable alternatives for businesses that either don't have a full service human resources department in-house or value the expertise and support of an outside professional HR consulting firm.

The HR Subscription Service provides the knowledge base and resources you need to manage your company's HR needs on a day-to-day basis. You'll be able to easily access information you need to know about hiring, training, disciplining, and terminating employees, along with the forms you'll need to keep your human resources procedures consistent and efficient.

HR Federal and State Guidelines are updated on-line, so you keep current of any changes that may affect your business. A monthly e-newsletter is included to keep businesses informed on industry best practices, innovations and trends. Plus, our experienced

HR Coaches are available by phone to provide assistance and support... it's like having your own HR dept.

Whether a start up or growing enterprise, running a business today requires sound human resources practices. Myriad state and federal regulations require consistent monitoring, knowledge and practice updates. Hiring the right employees, managing performance, administering compensation, and meeting federal and state guidelines require detailed knowledge and sound administrative practices.

CMI's HR online Subscription Partner solutions provide the business team a cost effective, on line solution to learning and maintaining sound human resources practices; and the information to handle HR issues as they arise.

CMI's online programs provide:

HR Guide & Quick Start: A complete HR Guide that includes job description formats; forms and information for job posting and external recruiting; how to extend an offer; how to interview including what you can and can't ask; performing reference and background checks; the orientation process; training and performance reviews; counseling and disciplinary action; and termination and exit procedures. Over 50 employment forms alleviate the need for research and worry. CMI, as your human resources partner, will assist you in the Quick Start set up of your program, and be there to guide you along the way.

Help Hot Line: And for those times when you need a second opinion, an interpretation of a regulation, general advice on an employment situation, or research on an issue, a human resources professional is only a phone call away.

Payroll Administration: Through our partner, Payroll Solutions, you will have a payroll administration partner that will handle your data conversion, train your designated employee/s in procedures and data input, processes your payroll, and provided reporting and tax information as needed.

Employee Handbook: A complete guide to preparing your employee handbook walks you through setting up company policies and worksheets and provides you with what to include in the handbook and what is not appropriate.

Issues Information and Alerts: Information on the new Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act is included and interpreted. At over 900 pages, even the most seasoned human resources professionals have questions about application and administration of these new laws. Alerts and a newsletter are provided to keep business up to date on the latest changes in employment laws and changes that need to be made in policies and procedures.

Employment Posters: Postings required by federal and state law are included. A digital version is available on line, and printed posters may be ordered for your workplace for an additional fee.

In today's ever changing regulatory environment, neither a growing nor established business can afford to be without the protection that solid human resources policies provide. Call us today for more information on our HR Partner programs.
